

Year: 1
Topic: RSE

St Dennis Primary Academy

"Everyone matters, everyone succeeds, every moment counts"

Are all families the same?

We live in a world where everyone is different and this includes the family lives that we all have. Some children live with two parents; some with only one.

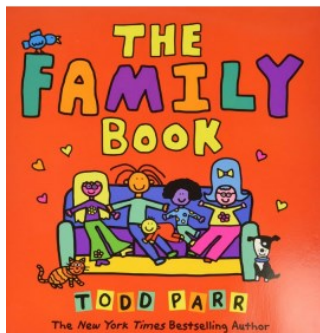

Others live with grandparents or other family members. Everyone's family life is different and it is important to remember that these differences are what makes our community strong and ensures that all children have a loving home.

Human Lifecycle

Glossary

different	Not the same as another or each other.
family	A group of people related by marriage or blood.
female	Relating to women or the female gender.
lifecycle	A series of changes that happen to all living things.
male	Relating to men or the male gender.
penis	The name for external male genitalia.
private parts	Parts of the body that is covered by the undergarments.
vulva	The name for external female genitalia.

Scan the QR code to listen to the story.

Scan the QR code to watch the NSPCC Pantosaurs video.