Fishers of Men

Man with leprosy

Good Samaritan

Evangelist

Vicar

The first four people Jesus called to follow him were fishermen who were working on the Sea of Galilee. Each one of these decided to give up their work and become a follower of Jesus. Jesus asked them to become fishers of men.

To help people understand how they should live, and the kind of world Jesus wanted, he told them stories with meanings. One of these was the parable of the Good Samaritan. Each of the four books in the Bible which contain these parables and stories about the life of Jesus is known as a gospel.

Disciples is a name for those who follow Jesus and believe that he is the Son of God. The clergy are carrying on the role that Jesus gave his disciples to become fishers of men. Evangelists will go out into the world and tell people all about Jesus and his message so they can follow his example and teaching. A Christian may decide to become a vicar and they work in their local community to tell people about Jesus and to help them as Jesus helped people, such as when he healed the man with leprosy.
