Called to be world changers

Love, peace and forgiveness today.

Jesus chose people from many different roles in life to be his apostles. He often chose people to follow him who were outcasts at the time.

One person he chose was Matthew, who was a tax collector. The Romans employed tax collectors to collect money from the people and they were hated as they gave the money to the Romans and kept some for themselves. Jesus showed forgiveness to Matthew by asking him to become one of his followers.

Jesus wanted his apostles and disciples to be world changers, so like Matthew they would be able to spread Jesus' message of love, forgiveness and peace.

Jesus also chose other world changers to help him spread his message of forgiveness, these included the fishermen, Simon called Peter and his brother Andrew and James and John.

Christians believe that Jesus' message of 'forgive and be forgiven' is still needed today and they will work to show this in all that they do.
