

Meeting date:

22nd November 2024

Agenda:

- Discussion about Money Heroes competition to design a book character
- Feedback from introduction of playground toys

Suggestions and actions:

- The council suggested ideas for a character for the competition. After all participants had contributed a vote was held to determine the most popular. It was decided that the character will be a fox. Attributes for this character were discussed and the council will go away and draw or write about their ideas, ready to collaborate to create a final outcome at the next meeting.
- Feedback about the playground equipment was positive. Key words and phrases heard were 'sharing', 'organised', 'moveable', 'fun' and 'engaged'.
- Next week council will plan for the next 'Special Golden Time'.
